ENFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

Enfield, Connecticut

DEDICATION

The graduating class of 1952 respectfully dedicates this issue of the Enfield Echo to Mr. Sabath M. Nigro who, as our senior homeroom teacher, has guided us through our final year at Enfield. His understanding, high ideals, and sharp sense of humor will always be a shining beacon as we strive to reach our goal in life.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

We have passed another milestone in our career. During the past four years we have been afforded great opportunities for preparing and developing ourselves for the future. It has been a privilege to work with such a tireless faculty who are ever encouraging us to greater achievements.

We have not been limited just to studies in Enfield; we have been encouraged in a complete program of activities. Proof of our success in the volutary program is presented in this "ECHO".

The outstanding phase of our Enfield life has surely been our association with one another. Here we have learned how to live, to work together, and to combine our efforts for greater achievements. We can go forth into the world with greater confidence in ourselves and in our abilities to cope with life's problems. Yet, as we pass through the doors of Enfield for the last time as students, we wish to pause a moment to express our sincere appreciation to our school, faculty, friends and parents for their patience, understanding and encouragement in our endeavors.

Sincerely yours,
ATHERTON RYAN

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1952

September 1948 began a new and glorious era in the history of Enfield High, for this was the day when the class of 1952 first entered these halls. Frightened and bewildered freshmen, we set out on a great adventure. It was a new and exciting experience for us then. There were new friendships, new activities, and something different of an intellectual nature which many of us never before realized existed. It was not long before we adhered to the customs and traditions of Enfield, and set out on our new road of scholastic achievement.

The upperclassmen extended to us a very cordial welcome at the Senior-Freshman Reception — the first and outstanding social event of the year. It enabled many of us humble freshmen to come into contact with our noble superiors, and absorb a little of their wisdom.

Every group must have its able leaders; our class was no exception. To lead us through our first year we elected George Harrington, President; Mary Crombie, Vice-President; Joan Keller, Secretary; and Thomas Casey, Treasurer.

Mary Susan Dowling, Michael Nigro, Allan Thompson, Atherton Ryan, and George Harrington contributed to the success of the annual school play, "Life with Father". Freshman talent was also displayed in the Hi-Y minstrel, "Show Boat".

The spirit at Enfield rose to great heights during our first year. Enfield had an undefeated football season. For the first time in the history of the school we won the state football championship.

We entered our sophomore year with eagerness and enthusiasm.

To guide us through our second year we elected George Harrington, President; Mary Crombie, Vice-President; Eleanor Shelanskas, Secretary; and Harry Hodgins, Treasurer.

Atherton Ryan and James Katsis helped make the annual school play, "Jenny Kissed Me," a success.

Another successful production of the year was the Hi-Y minstrel, 'Fantasy Review'. Our class was well represented by Sylvia White, Agnes Ashland, Barbara Balke, Mary Crombie, Mary Cunningham, Stanley Davenport, Carmine DiFranco, Mary Susan Dowling, Patricia Dunn, Joyce Goodale, Phyllis Landry, Angelo Orefice, Sarah Ruggiero, James Katsis.

Lawrence Lirot brought honor to our class by winning the Tuberculosis Essay Contest.

After three months vacation we once again entered the portals of Enfield, this time as Juniors. With fortitude and resolution we began to undertake the tasks before us and we found time and energy to sponsor and support many social and athletic activities.

The main event of the year was the Junior Prom, "Springtime Fantasy", with Atherton Ryan and Agnes Ashland acting as host and hostess.

In April the annual school play, "Mother is a Freshman", graced the stage of our auditorium with the class thespians, George Harrington, Atherton Ryan, Mary Crombie, Harry Hodgins, Edward Walenta, and James Katsis, participating.

Angelo Orefice won the "Most Valuable Football Player" award, and along with Atherton Ryan won the title of "All Western Mass."

At the end of the year Rose Zych and Mary Crombie represented our class at Laurel Girl's State, and Joseph Glista, George Harrington, Atherton Ryan, and John Denby at Nutmeg Boy's State.

On September 5, 1951, the day we had long awaited for finally arrived. We were at last Seniors.

The Senior-Freshmen Reception was the first event on the social calendar. The reception gave the incoming Freshmen an opportunity to mingle with us for an evening, with the hope that they might acquire a little of our social grace and "savoir faire"

As Seniors we did things in a big way. This was not only evident at the Senior-Freshman Reception, but also with the class elections. During election week the halls and classrooms were covered with posters. There were political rallies and campaign speeches. The democratic spirit was high as we experienced an innovation of the "party system", and voted on the town voting machine. Election week came to a climax with the announcement that Atherton Ryan was our new president, Mary Crombie our Vice-President for the fourth time, Eleanor Shelanskas, Secretary and Sebastian Guerriero, Treasurer.

George Harrington and Atherton Ryan took leading roles in the school play, "Our Miss Brooks".

In December with all the color and spirit of Christmas the Senior Prom, "Silver Bells", took place. The affable George Harrington and charming Ann Richardson acted as host and hostess.

Mary Crombie was the choice of the class for the annual good citizenship prize of the Peneloe Terry Abbe Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

During our four years stay at Enfield we have shared with each other what is perhaps the most pleasant experience of our lives. Most of our days at Enfield have been cheerful, but there were also times of sadness. Sorrow filled our hearts when we heard of the death of Miss Frances Janick and Mr. John Whalen. We had the privilege of working with Miss Janick and Mr. Whalen for a short while, and in memoriam we hold for them a place in our hearts.

With graduation many of us come to the end of our school days. We end the adventure we started four years ago, but find ourselves on the threshold of a new adventure. Each of us will take a different road and find our place in the world. But no matter where fate finds us, we shall forever treasure the many pleasant memories of our high school days, and as so many generations have done before, we shall honor and bring honor to the name of Enfield High School.

AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE

SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

"Serving the Connecticut River Valley"

American International College is a co-educational non-sectarian liberal arts and business administration college located at 170 Wilbraham Road in Springfield, Mass. Since its inception in 1885, it has expanded to the present day enrollment of approximately 850 full-time students.

Some of the College's major achievements are its Overseas Extension Divisions currently located at Bermuda, Nhahran in Saudi Arabia, and the Azores. These were established during 1950-52 with the cooperation of the United States Air Force. The most recent development at the College is its participation as the "advanced vanguard" in a nation-wide program being conducted by the Mutual Security Agency of the United States designed to better acquaint foreign student-workers with the functions of democracy by allowing them to work and study here.

American International College is a member of the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and is recognized by the American Council on Education and the American Medical Association. It is also registered by the Board of Regents of the University of the State of New York.
